

THE WEBER SCHOOL
Athletic Participation Form 2010-2011

Dear Parents:

In an effort to make all students and parents aware of the potential dangers in athletics, we are requiring all athletes and their parents to read and sign this form.

Although participation in interscholastic athletics and activities is not generally hazardous, by nature, participation in athletics includes a risk of injury, which may range in severity from minor to long-term catastrophic, including permanent paralysis from the neck down or death. While injuries are not common in school-sponsored athletic programs, it is possible only to minimize, not eliminate this risk.

Participants have the responsibility to help reduce the chance of injury. Players must have physicals completed before practicing, obey all safety rules, report all physical problems to their coaches follow proper conditioning programs and inspect their equipment daily.

By signing this permission form, you and your child acknowledge that you have read and understand this warning. Parents or students who do not wish to accept the risks described in this warning should not sign this permission form. In signing this form you are granting your son/daughter the right to participate in the sports listed below, and you agree to hold the school harmless for the inherent risks described above if your child is injured while participating.

Please list below the sports in which you authorize your child to participate in:
